Appendix I-1 反腐败协议Anti-Corruption Agreement (Format)

To promote anti-corruption in engineering project activities, regulate the activities of both parties of the Contract, prevent any improper activities and violations of law, and protect the legitimate rights and interests of the nations, and Contract parties, an Anti-Corruption Agreement, in accordance with laws and regulations relating to engineering projects and the requirements for construction of a clean and honest administration, is developed herein for agreement of both parties.

1. Obligations of Both Parties

- 1.1 Both parties shall strictly abide by the relevant laws and regulations on market access, project bidding, project supervision and other project operational activities.
- 1.2 Both parties shall strictly enforce the Contract, and consciously act according to the Contract.
- 1.3 All the activities must adhere to an open, fair, impartial, honest, and transparent principle (relevant laws and regulations prevail).
- 1.4 Both parties must not obtain undue benefits and damage the state's, collective's, and both sides' interests. Both parties must not violate the relevant laws and regulations.
- 1.4 If there are any activities found by either party, which deviate from the relevant laws or regulations, it is another side's obligation to remind the counterpart promptly. Serious violations of the laws or regulations should be reported timely to corresponding supervisors or the judiciary.

2. Obligations of the Purchaser

The Purchaser's personnel shall comply with the following requirements anytime:

- 2.1 It is not allowed to ask for or receive any kickbacks, cash, gifts, securities, valuables, commissions and etc. from the Supplier.
 - 2.2 It is not allowed to reimburse any expenses including personal expenses from the Supplier unless they are specified in the Contract.
 - 2.3 It is not allowed to request, suggest or receive any advantages from the Supplier for personal house decoration, weddings and funerals, work arrangements for the spouses and children, as well as traveling abroad, and tourism.
 - 2.4 It is not allowed to participate in any banquets and other recreational or entertainment activities that may affect the impartial performance of the official duties.
- It is not allowed to introduce or assist spouses, children and relatives to involve in the project-related activities. It is not allowed, for any reason, to recommend or ask the Supplier to purchase products, materials and equipment other than specified in the Contract. It is also not allowed to require the Supplier to carry out any acts in violation of any relevant anti-corruption laws or regulations.

3. Obligations of the Supplier

The Supplier shall maintain normal business dealings with the Purchaser and fulfill the Contract in accordance with relevant laws, regulations and procedures. The Supplier shall strictly implement the relevant laws and regulations, and comply with the following requirements:

- 3.1 It is not allowed to ask for or receive any kickback, cash gifts, securities, valuables, commissions and etc. from the Purchaser.
- 3.2 It is not allowed to reimburse any expenses including personal expenses from the Purchaser unless they are specified in the Contract.
- 3.3 It is not allowed to request, suggest or receive any advantages from the Purchaser for personal house decoration, weddings and funerals, work arrangements for the spouses and children, as well as traveling abroad, and tourism.
- 3.4 It is not allowed to participate in any banquets and other recreational or entertainment activities that may affect the impartial performance of the official duties.

4. Liability for breach of the Agreement

- 4.1 Any Purchaser's personnel in violation of the Term 1 and 2 shall be subject to the disciplinary actions in accordance with relevant party's and administrative policy and regulations and/or the legal action in accordance with the relevant laws. Any economic losses caused by the violations shall be compensated to the Supplier according to the law.
- 4.2 A one or two-year suspension of business cooperation may be taken if there are any violation against the Term 1 and 3 by the Supplier, and a three-year suspension of business cooperation for serious violations. Any economic losses caused by the violations shall be compensated to the Purchaser according to the law.

5. Others

As an appendix of the Contract, this agreement has the same legal effect as the Contract. The agreement shall be deemed come into force on fulfillment immediately after it is signed by both parties.
